It is generally a best practice to send your letter to more than one person, including an administrator (special education director/coordinator, principal, or superintendent), and your child's case manager or teacher.

SAMPLE REEVALUATION REQUEST

[Date]

Dear _____,

I am making a formal request for a complete reevaluation for my child, [name of child], who is a student at [name of school] in [grade/class]. I am making this request for my child to be reevaluated sooner than the regularly scheduled 3-year reevaluation, an option that I appreciate is made available to me under Federal and State special education law.

I am requesting that my child be reevaluated because it is critical that decisions about [my child's name]'s special education program be made based on complete, accurate and up-to-date information. I believe that a complete reevaluation that evaluates my child in all areas related to his/her disability, including [you may list all of the areas where you believe that reevaluations are needed to identify your child's current educational needs, present levels of academic and functional performance, and to give the IEP team the information it needs to make decisions. Areas to consider include: health, hearing, vision, social/emotional/behavioral, general intelligence, communication status, motor skills, daily living skills, academic or developmental performance, vocational needs, and need for assistive technology] will provide us with the information that we need to develop an IEP that meet's [my child's name]'s educational needs, including academic, social/emotional and functional needs. [You may want to add a brief summary of your concerns, such as failing grades, reluctance to attend school, social relationships, communication skills, etc. For older children, this may include transition services to enable the child to meet his/her adult goals. If there are any evaluations that you do not believe need to be conducted at this time (e.g. intelligence test or vision test), you may note that.]

I look forward to receiving your written response within 10 days, with your plans to conduct the reevaluations for [my child's name]. Please let me know if I can provide any additional information to assist you in this process. I look forward to receiving your response.

Please include a copy of this letter in my child's file.

Sincerely,

[Your name, address, telephone number and email address]
